Women's Integral Retreat with Dr Sarah Nicholson and Tina Nance

Honeymoon Guesthouse, Ubud Bali

January 21 - 26, 2011

Experience deep, energising rest and nurturance, engage with your consciousness of mind, body and spirit, explore the path of women's spirituality...through yoga, meditation, journaling, dream work, dance, women's history and Integral theory

Womens Spiritual History & Integral Theory: Beginning with ancient Sumerian myth, learn about women who have walked the path before us. Join in story with the lineage of spiritual heroines who have embodied the divine in flesh as women. Understand women's spirituality in the context of Integral theory's evolutionary unfolding. What hurdles might we encounter when we work towards embodying the full archetype of the Self as woman? How might our specific relationship to the social and cultural world as women affect our personal development?

GLOBAL STUDIES CONFERENCE

<http://www.GlobalStudiesConference.com>

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

18-20 July, 2011

The Global Studies Conference and the Global Studies Journal are devoted to mapping and interpreting new trends and patterns in globalization. The conference serves as an open forum for exploring globalization from many perspectives in a wide variety of locations. The Global Studies Conference was inaugurated at the University of Illinois, Chicago in 2008, the second conference was held at Zayed University, Dubai, United Arab Emirates, in 2009, and the third was held at Pusan National University, Busan, South Korea.

Along with the general themes, each year the conference focuses on a different special topic. This year the special theme is Latin America and Globalization: Emerging Societies and Emancipation. This topic will be explored in depth as participants immerse themselves into the setting of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

As well as an impressive line-up of international plenary speakers, the conference will also include numerous paper, workshop and colloquium presentations by practitioners, teachers and researchers. We would particularly like to invite you to respond to the conference call-for-papers. Presenters may choose to submit written papers for publication in the Global Studies Journal. If you are unable to attend the conference in person, virtual registrations are also available which allow you to submit a paper for refereeing and possible publication in this refereed academic journal.

GUNI Poll: Breaking Barriers for Transformation
Virtual Participation - International Conference on HE and Sustainability

We are glad to announce the GUNI Poll: Breaking Barriers for Transformation <http://www.guni-rmies.net/conference2010/poll>. We are particularly interested in your participation.

The 5th International Barcelona Conference on Higher Education, 'Higher Education's Commitment to Sustainability: from Understanding to Action' <http://www.guni-rmies.net/conference2010/> aims to establish participative channels for all those interested in the transformation of Higher Education towards a sustainable society. The GUNI Poll: Breaking Barriers for Transformation has been created exactly for this purpose.

The POLL will be active until 07 November and will take you no more than 2 minute!
Go to the POLL <http://www.guni-rmies.net/conference2010/poll>

Do not lose you opportunity to voice your opinion! Your participation provides an opportunity to actively play a part in the content of the Conference and to directly affect the workshops <http://www.guni-rmies.net/conference2010/page.php?lang=2&id=35> that will take place during the Conference. The set of results of the poll will be analysed at the Parallel Workshops of the Conference and included in the next GUNI Report Higher Education in the World 4.

We take this opportunity to announce that all the participants at the Conference will receive the next GUNI Report Higher Education in the World 4 'Higher Education's Commitment to Sustainability: from Understanding to Action' (to be edited in 2011).

IDM

Our next teleseminar is called “Dialogic, Dialectic, and Adult Development”.
Tuesday, November 9, 2010 at 5 pm ET (7 am Sydney time on November 10, 2010)

Duration: 55 minutes

This teleseminar comprises a dialog between Russ Volckmann, Editor of the Integral Leadership Review, and Dr. Otto Laske, Founder and Director of the Interdevelopmental Institute (IDM). The seminar will address questions regarding the benefit of dialogic and dialectic thinking for understanding your own and others’ development.

During this no-cost tele-session, a distinction will be drawn between “learning” and “development”. In focus will be the question of what those who would empirically gauge levels of adult development need to observe, listen for, know, know how to do, and acquire mastery in, for the purpose of gaining insight into clients’ meaning and sense making in order to enhance their development.
